

Alpharetta Masterpiece

This spectacular decorator's European estate is masterfully situated on 2.2 idyllic acres in the gated and guarded enclave of The Estates at Atlanta National, an exclusive golf community in Alpharetta. This home provides unparalleled vistas of a tranquil lake and the 17th green of the Pete Dye designed, championship-style golf course.

From the timeless European décor to the owner's private retreat, lofty expanses of glass offer sensational views of flawless grounds and lush landscaping. Refined with well-balanced interiors, the subtle effect is classic and understated. This impressive estate is an illustrious achievement of paramount standards encompassing superior designer lighting, lustrous hardwood floors, extensive millwork, four handsome fireplaces and high-quality custom cabinetry. Ultimate style and sophistication describe this magnificent estate. For additional information regarding this home, contact Mary Lou Lanaux at 770.475.5530 or www.maryloulanaux.com.
